Lord Neverember Declares New Curfew

by Alyn Goldwing

According to sources inside The Hall of Justice, Lord Neverember will be instituting a new curfew law in the Chasm District due to the rash of robberies, as well as, the unconfirmed reports of Undead near the Chasm edge.

Eyewitness Jacob Willouby claims to have witnessed four "zombies" climbing from the eastern end of the Chasm.

Mintarn Mercenaries have been seen carrying heavy crossbows in the area.

The curfew will mandate all citizens remain within their homes after the 8pm hour. You will be able to obtain an Exemption Writ for a nominal fee.

Renowned Alchemist Found Dead

Potion May Have Cost His Life
by Phineas Copperfoot

The Alchemist famous for developing a healing potion with twice the average potency, was found hung in his workshop on Flowers 8. Master brewer Golen Strombly will be missed by many Adventures who depended on his wares for safety and recovery.

"All signs indicate the craftsman took his own life, but it is unclear how he hung himself with no stool or chair to step from," said the guard posted at his shop door. He had no family.

Heat Wave Coming!

By: Caelyn Silverfalls

The great prognosticator, Brolin the Seer, has received a weather vision that includes unseasonably warm weather for the Region. He recommends that farmers and monks pay careful attention to tender plants, berries, and grains during these next few weeks.
